

The Lubuto Library Project

Opening doors of opportunity to Africa's most vulnerable youth

The innovative Lubuto Library Project leverages existing community-based programs to create an open system of accessible services for vulnerable children, bringing them out of societal isolation. This adaptable, holistic program is based upon traditional approaches through which African children learn about the world and their place in it.

For more information on this event, please call 202-473-2000.

February 2, 2010, 11 am – 12 pm
J 1-050 Auditorium

The World Bank, J Building
701 18th St NW
Washington DC 20433
Room J1-050 is to the left of the lobby

THE WORLD BANK GROUP
Library & Archives
OF DEVELOPMENT